Agency Mission Statement

The Lower Mainland Purpose Society is a non-profit social service agency whose mission is to deliver a continuum of social, health, educational, and residential services. These services are designed for individuals, youth and families who are subject to personal and/or societal distress, marginalization and alienation. Through these services the Agency aims to enhance personal well being, strengthen family functioning and increase personal responsibility, confidence and healthy decision-making. Emphasis is on a client-centered approach within a continuum of care model, which focuses on the health, resiliency and resourcefulness of individuals. Services are provided in a safe and respectful environment where diversity and connection to community is valued.
